

SACRIFICE.

Cindy Sheehan
Mother

Army Spc. Casey Sheehan
Killed in Baghdad on April 4, 2004
He was 24 years old.

“President Bush, take a few minutes from your vacation to talk with me. Before one more mother’s child is lost.”

– Cindy Sheehan

SUPPORT.

“Looks like being a hero runs in your family. You have all my support.”
Joan, Medford MA

“I admire your initiative, I pray for you in your loss. Stand firm.”
Lisa, Waco TX

“Cindy, you are representing the families who have lost a son or daughter, sister or brother to a war that should never have happened.”
Stacey, Denver CO

“Cindy – I’m a mother, a grandmother and a great grandmother. I’m with you 100%.”
Jayne, Phoenix AZ

“I thank you from the deepest depths of my heart and want to let you know that you, with your strength and determination, give me hope for the future.”
Sarah, Los Angeles CA

“God and all of the American people will witness your devotion to your son vs. our President’s devotion to himself and the special interests that seem to rule this administration.”
Julia, Miami FL

“Cindy has a right to know the truth.”
Julie, San Antonio TX

“Dear Cindy, who better than you deserves honest answers? I weep for your son and for all our children.”
Mary Lynn, Huntington Woods MI

“What a courageous lady! Hold your ground Cindy!”
Lewis, Tucson AZ

“I believe your son would be very proud of you for standing up as an American just as I believe he knew you were proud of him. You represent us all.”
Gordon, Pasadena CA

“Your unflagging courage, honesty, and determination are inspiring.”
James, Webster TX

“Keep it up Cindy. This is a war started by lies and our young people are dying because of the lies of Bush and Cheney.”
Linda, Sun Lakes AZ

“Cindy, you are my hero. You are very brave and I totally support what you are doing.”
Elizabeth, Gainesville FL

“Mr. President, if you can take so much time off then certainly you can find time to speak to Cindy, who has given this country the greatest sacrifice of all – her son’s blood.”
Michael, Culver City CA

“You are in my thoughts and prayers. Keep up the vigil and get some questions answered if possible from this president.”
Rand, Irving TX

“Thank you for all you are doing, Mrs. Sheehan. You and your son are the true patriots.”
PI Norton, Lewis DE

“Your voice speaks for all of us with loved ones in Iraq. Thank you. Our hearts mourn for your loss, and rejoice in your courage.”
Ylve, Decatur GA

“I too have lost my daughter who was a captain in the army, after she served in Desert Storm. There is nothing more difficult and heart breaking than to lose your child. I strongly support what you are doing and hope Bush has the guts to meet with you.”
Mary, Freetown IN

“Millions of Americans are with you, Cindy. You are one brave soul. God bless you.”
Steve, Flower Mound TX

“Cindy you make me proud to be an American!”
Leah, Santa Monica CA

“As a mother myself, my heart goes out to you on the loss of your son in a war I have protested from the beginning.”
Susan, Northampton MA

“My son is in boot camp at Fort Benning. I wholeheartedly support your efforts to get President Bush to face up to the parents of those he sends to war.”
Jim, Marion IN

“Cindy Sheehan made the ultimate sacrifice a parent can make for her nation. Why can’t President Bush spare a little of his time for her?”
Ann, Piano TX

“Good for you Cindy. I’m sure your son would be proud of your patriotism.”
Marie, Saint Paul MN

“I appreciate your patriotism!”
Julie, Houston TX

“Cindy, I find strength in your courage. I hope that everyone with a child in the military will look at your strength and realize that this war affects all of us. Thank you for all you do! Your son would be proud!”
Roger, Salt Lake City UT

“Your vigil is the vigil of our nation. We all wait with you, if not in person at least in heartfelt spirit for the answers!”
Teresa, Sioux City IA

“Cindy – all my prayers for you to make a difference. You are an angel!”
Barbara, Gloucester MA

“Cindy, I am sorry for your loss, and I am so proud of you for standing up to a horrible series of lies resulting in such a travesty of justice. I hope your efforts can help prevent even one more soldier from dying, one more mother from grieving.”
Lisa, San Antonio TX

“Nothing I can say adequately conveys how much I appreciate you for taking a stand.”
Michael, Centerville OH

“Obviously your son took after his mom – brave and heroic. Please keep up this fight in the memory of your son and all the brave sons and daughters who have died in Iraq and those who are still there.”
Yanilsa, Wilmette IL

“America is with you. We want the truth.”
Pat, Fort Worth TX

“I greatly admire your courage. I wish I could afford to show up in person, but I’m with you in spirit.”
Jill, Culver City CA

“Cindy, you make all American moms proud! God bless you!”
Robyn, Sarasota FL

“As a mother of a son killed in the World Trade Center on 9/11, I totally support you and your action.”
Connie, Weston CT

“As an Army Veteran, retired police officer, and mother of a daughter, I fully support Cindy Sheehan and her right to have questions answered.”
Domenica, Steubenville OH

“I am so proud of you Mrs. Sheehan! I wish I could stand there with you. Please be assured that there are thousands of mothers and fathers all over our country watching you, admiring your courage and sharing your outrage. May God bless you and watch over you.”
Judy, Amarillo TX

“Thank you for speaking up and out! We are with you in spirit and we are sorry for your loss. Don’t give up!”
Janine, Waterford VA

“You have turned unfathomable loss into a call for action to protect other sons. May other mothers join your vigil in solidarity.”
Trisha, Saint Paul MN

“You are my hero.”
Laura, Scottsdale AZ

“Our country so needs more people like you. You make us proud to be real Americans!”
Susan, Dallas TX

MoveOn members support Cindy Sheehan and all Gold Star mothers.

In just 48 hours, over 280,000 of our members signed a petition of support and 190,000 took the time to send words of encouragement. They represent the growing majority in this country who share the pain of the Gold Star moms who’ve lost sons and daughters in Iraq, who are still waiting for the truth from their President.
